Literary Explorations: A Collaborative Lecture Series (Hybrid Mode)

Date: 27th January 2024

Time: 12:00 - 1:00 pm

No. of. Beneficiaries: 106

Objective:

• The primary objective of this Session was to delve into the theme of "Creating Secondary Worlds in the Realms of Literature." This topic aimed to provide students with a profound understanding of the literary technique of constructing secondary worlds within the narrative fabric. It encouraged students to explore the intricate art of world-building in literature, a skill crucial for appreciating and analyzing various genres.

Report on the Lecture:

"Creating Secondary Worlds in the Realms of Literature" by Dr. Neha Kumari (Resource Person), Assistant Professor Department of English Kristu Jayanti College Autonomous, Bengaluru, Karnataka is the third lecture of the National Lecture Series - Literary Explorations: A Collaborative Lecture Series (Hybrid Mode).

The Department of English at Kristu Jayanti College Autonomous, Bengaluru, Karnataka in collaboration with several esteemed institutions across India, i.e., Patna Women's College (Autonomous), Bihar, Patna, Sophia Girls' College (Autonomous), Ajmer, Rajasthan, St. Xavier's College, Jaipur, Rajasthan and General Shivdev Singh Singh Diwan Gurbachan Khalsa College (Autonomous), Patiala, Punjab organized a lecture as part of the "Literary Explorations: A Collaborative Lecture Series" on the 27th of February, 2024. This initiative aims to expose students to diverse literary themes and perspectives and facilitate a shared academic discourse among participating institutions.

The primary objective of the "Literary Explorations" lecture series is to promote a collaborative approach to learning and provide students with insights into diverse literary topics. The third session of the National Lecture Series was commenced by a Welcome Address given by Ms. Tithi Patro, VI BA English Literature, Kristu Jayanti College.

The session was later taken over by Dr. Neha Kumari by introducing the concept of secondary worlds in literature, emphasizing its significance in genres such as fantasy, science fiction, and magical realism. The resource person illustrated the techniques and tools employed by authors to create immersive secondary worlds, citing examples from classic and contemporary literature.

The lecture titled "Creating Secondary Worlds in the Realms of Literature" by Dr. Neha Kumari (Resource Person), Assistant Professor, Department of English, Kristu Jayanti College Autonomous, Bengaluru, Karnataka. The session was held from 12:00 to 1:00 pm and was conducted in a hybrid mode, enabling participants from various institutions to attend.

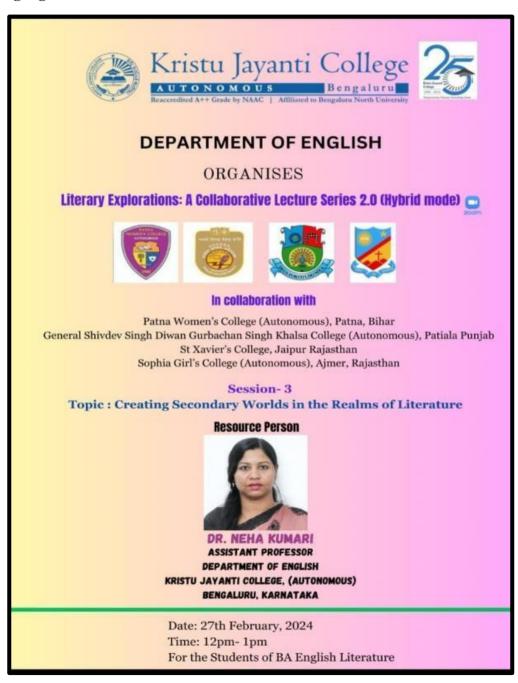

The event coordinator, Dr. Mary Raymer, Assistant. Professor, Dept. of English, Kristu Jayanti College along with the Student Coordinators, Ms. Thahaseen Fathima and Ms. Tithi Patro of VI BA English Literature oversaw the successful conduction of the program, held over a Zoom meeting, which was attended by the students of VI BA English Literature along with students and faculty members of the National Lecture Series member institutions.

Following the lecture, a vote of thanks of conveyed by Ms. Pratyushi Joshi, VI BA English Literature, Kristu Jayanti College. All the students who attended the session were invited to participate in a 10-minute quiz designed to assess their understanding of the lecture content. Successful completion of the quiz would grant them a certificate, providing a tangible recognition of their participation and engagement.

The lecture by Dr. Neha Kumari on "Creating Secondary Worlds in the Realms of Literature" was an intellectually stimulating event that contributed to the "Literary Explorations" lecture series. It exemplified the collaborative spirit among the participating institutions and provided students with an enriching experience in the realm of English studies. There were a total 106 students who joined for the session from the five institutions.

Report

On 28th February, 2024, St. Xavier's College Jaipur, as part of a lecture series in collaboration with four other colleges, organised a lecture on 'Kitchen and the Poetics of Cooking', by Dr. Rama Hirawat, HOD, Department of English. The lecture explored the role of food and cooking in cultural expression and its gender dynamics. It was an informative and interactive session, with numerous examples from both books and visual media. Overall, the lecture was interesting and insightful, providing several new points for research and thoughtful exploration. Similar lectures in the future are hoped for.

- Level- College
- Title of the event "The Joy of Giving Week"
- Total Number of the Participants 79
- Description On December 16, 2023, the Department of English organized "The Joy of Giving Week" at Mother Teresa's Home, a heartwarming event aimed at bringing joy to the elderly residents. The day featured engaging games, interactive activities, and entertaining performances that fostered a sense of community. Personal interactions and gift distributions further enriched the experience, leaving a lasting impact on both the students and seniors.
- Learning Outcomes: This event served as a valuable lesson for the student organizers, emphasizing the importance of empathy, community engagement, and intergenerational connections. The students learned the joy of selfless giving, gaining insights into the challenges faced by the elderly. The one-on-one interactions provided a platform for shared experiences, promoting understanding and compassion. This event not only created a positive impact on the seniors' lives but also instilled a sense of social responsibility and the profound satisfaction derived from making a difference in the community.

- Venue- Fortunatus Indoor Stadium
- Title of the event Pegasus: The Literary Fest
- Total Number of the Participants 141

Description- The Department of English organized the muchanticipated Pegasus: The Literary Fest on 21st December, 2023, at the Fortunatus Indoor Stadium. The fest aimed to cultivate the creative prowess of students through a diverse array of competitions. The festivities kicked off with "Deck the Pages," a festive literary bookmark/card making competition, followed by the intriguing "Tiny Tales," challenging storytellers to convey a narrative in just five words. "Wish upon a Star" and "Jingle Bell Baking Bonanza" explored artistic expression through wishes and culinary creativity, respectively. "Season's Narratives" encouraged the composition of Christmas carols, tales, poems, or songs within a concise 200-word limit, while "Frosty Frames and Fables" delved into the world of Christmas window dressing. The creative flair extended to a "Winter Masquerade Costume" contest, showcasing fashion inspired by the season. The literary fervour reached its zenith with "Winter Words Unleashed," an extempore competition testing participants' spontaneity and linguistic agility. The Fortunatus Indoor Stadium echoed with imaginative expressions, creating a vibrant atmosphere that resonated with the fest's primary goal—to nurture and celebrate the creative abilities of the participating students.

Learning Outcome- Through this activity, the students were able to able to widen their knowledge and enhance their creativity and writing skills.
